

Application for Travel Grant

Send completed form to the Secretariat at info@apccmi2025.com

Selected abstract presenting authors meeting the below requirements will be considered for travel grants of USD 500 and free registration. These grants are specifically aimed at partially assisting investigators and authors from countries with lower or lower middle-income economies. When submitting your application, please also attach your CV and a copy of your passport.

Eligibility:

- Be listed as the presenting author of an abstract submitted for APCCMI 2025.
- Be based in a low income or lower middle-income country according to the World Bank report. To see the eligible countries, click here.
- Complete the online registration form and be present at the APCCMI 2025.
- In the registration form, indicate that you are applying for the travel award
- Submit your short CV and state why you should receive the travel grant (one page).
- The travel award is given only once to the presenting author regardless of the number of accepted abstracts or co-authors.

The awardees will be notified before October 1, 2025. The travel award is given on-site during the APCCMI 2025. To receive the grant, you must present your passport to verify your identity. The registration fee will be reimbursed on-site. A copy receipt of the paid registration fee must be presented to receive the reimbursement.
